

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. An Exhibit may not be entered in more than one class.
2. A judge may not be an exhibitor in any class in which he acts as a judge.
3. Staging of exhibits will be by appointed stewards except in display classes.
4. The Federation or Show Committee shall not be responsible for loss or damage to exhibits.
5. The winner of a cup, except for a winner from outside Ireland and the UK, may retain it until the commencement of the Summer Course of the succeeding year, on which date it must be returned in good order and condition to the Hon. Secretary of the National Honey Show.
6. The decision of the judges shall be final.
7. The judge reserves the right not to award all or any of the prizes in any class.
8. An exhibitor shall not be entitled to more than one prize in any one class, or in Supreme Honey awards.
9. Gift exhibits and prize-winning exhibits in classes 14, 17 and 18 become the property of the Show Committee and will be disposed of at their discretion during the show.
10. A label or other distinguishing mark may not be placed on any exhibit, except in Classes 8 and 9 where labels, which conform to E.U. regulations must be affixed to the exhibits. Numbers should be placed 12mm - 15mms from the bottom of the jar and with Sections and Beeswax, one number should be stuck to the exhibit and the other to the covering.
11. The decision of the Show Committee on any matter relating to the show (except judging) shall be final.
12. Entries must be made on the form provided and posted or emailed so as to reach the Show Secretary by 20th July. Late entries will be accepted up to 11.00 a.m. on Friday 27th July.
13. Entries must be placed on the show benches on Friday between 9am and 12 noon. Once an exhibitor has completed the display he/she may not re-enter the Honey Show.
14. All Honey and Wax exhibited must be the genuine produce of the exhibitor's own bees.
